

The Claires Court Schools/ Art on the Street Award

Working together to provide opportunities for artists

The on-going friendship between Claires Court Schools and Art on the Street has borne a wonderful opportunity for artists who took part in Art on the Street this year (2011) to apply for a one-off award of £500.

The Criteria:

You will need to communicate to us how a £500 award could have a demonstrative impact on either your personal development as an artist, a project that has been limited by lack of funds, a community arts initiative or any other area that you feel would enhance your career as an artist.

The deadline for applying for this prize is Monday 31st October 2011.

Hard Copy Entry:

Please hand/send this completed form with a good quality photograph/postcard of your work and any supporting material that you feel will enhance your application to Art on the Street, c/o Bovilles Art Shop, 124 High Street, Maidenhead, Berkshire, SL6 1PT.

Digital Entry:

You can supply us with all the information required via e-mail to marie@maidenheadartmarket.org Please make sure all the questions are answered in full. Supporting material can be attached or linked to. A jpeg or gif of your work (maximum of 2MB image size please) must also be included.
